Audubon's Nebraska Crane Festival

March 21-24, 2019

Audubon's Nebraska Crane Festival brings together hundreds of crane lovers from around the country to Kearney, Nebraska, to interact with a wide range of environmental speakers, take part in incredible birding trips, and, best of all, experience the world's largest gathering of Sandhill Cranes!

Please consider joining us for next year's fun. Watch this page as we announce speakers and field trips for 2019.

Call for Presentations: Click here if you would like to give a presentation at next year's festival.

Write us to be put on a mailing list for updates. If you can't make the festival but still want to see the Sandhill Cranes, check out Rowe Sanctuary's website, or call (308) 468-5282 to learn about more crane viewing options.
